

VOL. XXXIX

STEVENS POINT, WIS., OCT. 18, 1916.

NO. 15

IS WRITER OF NOTE

County Clerk A. E. Bourn today received notice that a hearing will be conducted at the local court house on Nov. 8 by a member of the state industrial commission. What case will be heard was not stated.

LOOKS LIKE WILSON.

Edmund R. Week of Spokane, Wash., arrived here the first of the week for a visit at the homes of his brothers and sister, N. A. A. R. and Miss Martha Week. Ed had been spending most of the summer in northern California. He is an enthusiastic supporter of President Wilson and predicts the latter's re-election by a big majority. Oregon, Washington and Montana will go Democratic, Mr. Week believes, and the prospects are good for carrying California and Idaho.

AGED LADY DROPS DEAD

Mrs. Johanna Feustel, 75 Years Old
Expires Suddenly On Return
From Funeral Tuesday.

Shortly after her return from the funeral of Mrs. Dorothea Crueger at St. Paul's German Lutheran church yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Johanna Feustel, aged 75, dropped dead at the home of her step-daughter, Mrs. George Price, 320 Monroe street. Mrs. Feustel had been in the house only a few minutes and was conversing with her daughter when she reeled and fell into Mrs. Price's arms. A doctor pronounced death due to heart trouble. She had never before been seriously sick, but at times had complained of slight pains in her left side.

Mrs. Feustel was the second wife of Rev. Gustave A. Feustel, a German Lutheran minister who was at one time stationed at Amherst, this country. She came here four months ago and had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Price, 419 Oak street. She was born in Freistadt, near Milwaukee, her maiden name being Johanna Klug, and celebrated her 75th birthday anniversary on Sept. 23.

Surviving are ten step-children: Mrs. Charles Price and Mrs. George Price of this city, Mrs. Julius Hahn, Mrs. William Kopitzke and Paul Feustel of Manawa, Gustave and Martin Feustel of Amherst, John Feustel of Ableman, Mrs. Frank Kamp of Royalton and Mr. Adolph Kuhn of Bruno, Minn.

The remains will be taken to Manawa tomorrow and the funeral will be held there Friday afternoon, with interment beside her husband, who died about two years ago.

GETS ARTIFICIAL LIME.

Frank Sliva, the 18 year old orphan who lost a leg in an accident at a saw mill at Polonia several months ago, is to have an artificial limb. J. F. McGowan, a former resident of this city, who represents the J. F. Rowley Co. of Chicago, was in the city this morning and received the order for the appliance. Mr. McGowan is also minus a leg, but the artificial limb he wears makes it almost impossible to detect the fact, even when he is walking. Sliva has been cared for at the county farm since the accident, but he has ambitions and, when he is able to cast aside his crutches, expects to have no trouble in making his way in the world. The purchase of the artificial leg was made by Basil Wanta, chairman of the town of Sharon.

MOURN DEATH OF SON.

Donald Douglas, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Woboril, 321 Pine street, passed away at 5:30 o'clock last Thursday morning, following an illness of one week's duration. The child was taken sick suddenly and from the first his condition was alarming. His illness was diagnosed as cholera infantum.

Donald was born on Feb. 9, 1914, and was the second of three children of Mr. and Mrs. Woboril. One, a daughter, Florence, is four years of age and the youngest, a son, James Martin, is four and a half months. The baby is also seriously ill and under the care of a trained nurse.

The remains of little Donald were taken to Abbotsford for interment Saturday noon, following a short service at the residence by Rev. R. J. McLandress. Mr. Woboril and his brother-in-law, Wilks H. Douglas of Milwaukee, accompanied the body. Mr. Woboril's mother, Mrs. Antoinette Woboril, arrived in the city Friday morning and is still with the family.

ASSAULT AGED LADY.

Joseph Marcisz and John Kalian were arraigned in Justice Wilson's court Friday charged with assault and battery, the complainant in the case being Mrs. Minnie Miller of the town of Hull. Marcisz was fined $25 and costs, in all $31.45, but was returned to the county jail to serve a ninety day term as he was unable to get the money. Kalian's case was adjourned to Oct. 19th. Both men are employees at the Stevens Point Brick and Construction Co.

Mrs. Miller, who is over 80 years of age, claimed that she was attacked and beaten on two nights last week, the first intrusion occurring Wednesday morning and the second at about seven o'clock Thursday evening.

Several grand prizes will be awarded every evening. The Maxwell touring car will be disposed of Thursday evening. Amusements of all kinds will be provided and Weber's orchestra will furnish music each evening.

A general and cordial invitation to attend the fair is tendered the public.

COMMISSIONER IS COMING.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT VICTORY ENDS FIGHT

Stevens Point Needs New High School Building—Alumnus Discusses the Situation.

With Stevens Point growing and developing at a rate unsurpassed by any city of similar size in the state, the need of a modern and adequate high school is being more keenly felt each year. The present building is overcrowded, out-of-date and a weak link in the city's chain of educational institutions.

"There is a woeful lack of assembly and class rooms in the building," said J. R. Pfiffer, a member of the alumni advisory committee, which visited the school last Wednesday. "The present assembly room has seats for but 196, and then is over-crowded, and it is necessary to station the rest of the 292 students in class rooms. Under these conditions it is impossible to obtain the best results. General assemblies are out of the question and the scattering of pupils disrupts the morale because of the absence of centralized authority, thus interfering with progress in every line of endeavor."

"Another handicap is the utter lack of facilities for indoor physical training for either boys or girls. It is universally conceded that gymnastics are an essential part of modern school life and the High school has always been far behind other cities in this phase of education.

"It has been suggested, and I think the idea is worthy of thought, that a new high school, when provided, be more centrally located. The site of the Washington school, with the addition of property on Main street, would be an ideal location. Another suggestion is that the new school contain an auditorium in which the proper kind of entertainments could be produced, making it a community center.

"While a new high school may be out of the question at this time, owing to the financial burden involved, the time is coming when it will be absolutely necessary and it is well to plan for the future. With the enrollment steadily increasing, it is apparent that something will have to be done very soon."

GETTING BIG PRICES.

Writing from Reeder, N. D., where he is engaged in farming, O. W. Drake, a former local carpenter, said the threshing season in that vicinity ended last Thursday. "Some of our grain," he said, "was about half a crop, but the price of wheat and flax is just double what it was last year. I sold my flax for $2.22 per bushel, No. 4 wheat at $1.16, No. 1 wheat at $1.00, oats about the same, and barley about 20 cents higher than last year. Mrs. Drake has been in the Marshfield hospital for three weeks for treatment."

TRAVELED 5,000 MILES.

A. R. Week, who had been in the east for several months, a portion of the time under medical treatment in a hospital near Boston, returned home last Sunday evening. The entire journey was made via automobile in company with his sisters, Miss Martha Week of this city and Mrs. Theo. Gribi of Hollywood, Cal., and his brother, J. Arthur Week of Los Angeles, who went to Boston a few weeks ago. After leaving Boston the party went down the coast and stopped at New York, Washington, Annapolis, Philadelphia, Gettysburg, Cleveland and many other cities. The total mileage for the trip, out and back, was 5,000 miles.

ON ROAD TO RECOVERY.

Notwithstanding that he was laid at rest by many of the state papers, and some outside the state, which printed dispatches that he died an hour after he was seized with hiccoughs, M. W. Rice, deputy clerk of the circuit court, is very much alive and is steadily recovering. Mr. Rice was a victim of the unusual ailment for about a week, but since last Friday has been free from the trouble. His strength is rapidly returning and he is able to sit up a part of the time.

Donald was born on Feb. 9, 1914, and was the second of three children of Mr. and Mrs. Woboril. One, a daughter, Florence, is four years of age and the youngest, a son, James Martin, is four and a half months. The baby is also seriously ill and under the care of a trained nurse.

DIRECTOR IS HERE

First Rehearsal for Elks' Home Talent Minstrel Show Is Held

Tuesday Evening.

Armed with a complete new repertoire of musical hits, jokes and comedy skits, the director who is to have charge of the Elks' home talent minstrel, "Tuxedo," arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. And the "pep" for which Miller & Draper, the celebrated New York producers, are noted, is just as manifest as ever, judging from the first rehearsal, held in the lodge room last evening.

The company that is to appear in the big musical event will number about 30 men and 20 young women, the best of the city's talent. Included in the list will be many men who took part in last year's record breaking minstrel.

Daily rehearsals will be the order of things from now until Oct. 30, when the initial performance will be put on. It will be repeated on the 31st and the prediction is that new standards will be set for home talent plays when the smoke of battle blows off. The Normal auditorium will be the place and a spirited ticket selling campaign will be carried out to guard against re-

Bankers of Wisconsin Win Transfer To Chicago Reserve District From Minneapolis.

"The federal reserve board on Friday voted to transfer from the Minneapolis to the Chicago reserve district the counties of Monroe, Jackson, Clark, Marathon, Oconto and Marinette, in Wisconsin, and all other counties now in the Minneapolis district east and south of that territory. The transfer is effective Jan. 1, 1917. No change was made as to northern Michigan, where banks had appealed for a like transfer."

The above dispatch, sent out from Washington, marks the end of a long and hard fight, in which J. W. Dunegan, cashier of the First National bank of Stevens Point, was the prime mover. Immediately upon receiving the good news from the federal board, Mr. Dunegan communicated it to other banks of this district and received a number of congratulatory messages in return.

"We began our fight over two years ago," Mr. Dunegan said to a representative of The Gazette. "Practically all the banks of Wisconsin have always transacted the bulk of their business with Milwaukee and Chicago, which, by reason of the better railroad connections and long established relations, are the natural centers of business for almost the entire state. Thus the fact that the banks in a territory comprising nearly three quarters of the state were placed in the Minneapolis district in December, 1913, turned their business into an unnatural channel and threatened, as a result, great inconvenience for them when the law goes into full effect in November, 1917."

"I believe the federal reserve act is one of the greatest pieces of legislation enacted in a decade," he continued, "but I also felt that for Wisconsin bankers to co-operate in its operation to a maximum degree it was necessary that they be affiliated with the Chicago district. From Jan. 1 to June 30, 1916, inclusive, our bank handled 47,300 items on Milwaukee, Chicago and New York, representing an aggregate amount of $5,223,878.68. During the same period our dealings with St. Paul and Minneapolis totalled but 140 items and $151,044.69, and none of this business originated in the twin cities, but was sent there for credit. As another illustration of the pronounced tendency of local business to go south and east, I made a poll of city merchants, which showed that less than 2 percent of Stevens Point's mercantile trade goes to Minneapolis."

"We are highly pleased with the decision of the federal reserve board and are grateful to Senators Huston and LaFollette and Congressmen Browne, Konop, Reilly and Stafford for the great assistance they rendered in bringing the movement to a satisfactory conclusion."

The struggle for the transfer was waged in accordance with a thorough and well-laid campaign. There were 61 national banks in the protesting territory a year ago and 254 state banks. The state banks are not now under the federal reserve act, but, assuming that they will be at some future time, a poll was taken to test their preference as between the Minneapolis and Chicago districts. The vote was 249 to 5 in favor of Chicago and four of the five that preferred Minneapolis did so on account of stock ownership in that city.

The federal reserve board rendered a decision in the matter on May 25 of this year, dismissing the complaint on the grounds that no present necessity was shown, but without prejudice to the rights of the petitioners to file an amended petition at a later date. An amended petition was then filed and as a result of the second hearing the decision in favor of the petitioners was handed down.

Mr. Dunegan attended both hearings and gathered much of the data submitted in evidence.

AT STATE MEETING.

Dr. George D. Whiteside of Plover, candidate for assemblyman, and A. E. Redfield of this city, secretary of the Portage County Republican committee, attended a conference called by the Republican state central committee at Milwaukee yesterday. Nearly every county in the state was represented and reports on the political situation were brought in. M. C. Skinner of Plover, chairman of the county committee, was unable to attend.

BOARD MAKES REQUEST

Asks That Every Business House Have Galvanized Iron Garbage Reception.

The board of health, at its meeting last evening, decided to appeal to the occupants of business houses in the business districts to give their support to sanitary measures in the handling of garbage. It is desired that every business house have a garbage can for its own use, of uniform galvanized iron construction and with tight-fitting cover. Now that the up-town business district has been cleaned up under the chief of police, it must be kept clean. The use of some other person's garbage can, without permission, will not be tolerated. The board hopes that the mere request will be all that is necessary to secure the complete cooperation of business people.

As a result of the survey that has been made of the public schools by Dr. W. W. Theisen of Madison, it is probable that more shifting of teachers will be made later, with the idea of increasing the efficiency of the system. J. W. Merry acting as toastmaster.

NO ELK MEETING.

On account of the rehearsal for "Tuxedo," the home talent minstrel, there will be no regular meeting of the Elks' lodge this evening.

PLANS TO START WORK.

John Strange, president of the John Strange Paper Co. of Neenah, is expected in the city this evening or tomorrow morning to conclude arrangements for beginning work on the new paper mill to be erected at McDill. The sale of the Wisconsin Graphite Co.'s property has not yet been approved by the court, but this formality will be completed very soon, it is presumed.

"And to come home now to the U. S. and witness the attempt to thrust these fail with great numbers of students. Some teachers have an originality from the guidance of American affairs the government which had led the U. S. through this maze of diplomacy and machination is, to one who has witnessed affairs from the European end, little short of terrifying. It is like playing with dynamite.

"Certainly the steadiness of our government is as important to us as the steadiness of their government is to Germans or Brits; our danger is a great, if not so imminent and apparent as theirs. The certain grasp of our present government on war affairs is as important to us as the grasp of Von Bethmann-Hollweg or Asquith is to Germany or England." —From Chicago Day Book.

"Auto Hits Ford" says a headline in the Rhinelander New North Grounds for another damage suit for Henry.

While Republican leaders are gleefully predicting that the solid German-American vote will go for Hughes, there are a good many voters of Teutonic origin who resent the insinuation that they are lacking in independence. The fact of the matter is that thousands of them will rally to the support of Woodrow Wilson and it is a safe prediction that the Democratic party will lose fewer German-American voters than the Republican party. Many German Republicans will vote for Wilson because he kept us out of war, while they know that under any Republican administration it would have been involved long ago.

The speech of Hon. Charles Lieb of Indiana in the house of representatives is an index of the sentiment that prevails among American citizens who are natives of Germany. "Mr. Speaker, I was born in Germany," said Mr. Lieb. "At the age of 14 years I came to the United States in response to a youthful conviction that freedom and success could be realized here as in no other land. I stood as in the presence of God and swore allegiance to the land of my adoption. I did so without the least misgivings as to the wisdom of my decision to give up all national ties with the country of my birth, thereby unalterably casting my lot with the greatest nation in the world, the United States. Never to this day have I wavered in my conception of duty to the country of my adoption. Never have I allowed myself to be influenced by any other motive than that involving loyalty to the United States."

In the (the submarine) crisis he faced the President should have had the hearty support of every man, woman and child in America. For it developed that Mr. Wilson pursued exactly the right course. Any other attitude of the President would have plunged us either into war or prolonged the submarine controversy.

No matter what other construction may be put, I say that Germany's answer was an admission that Wilson was not only right, but fair. Another president might have gone to war with Germany without sending any kind of note. And we ought to thank God that there was a Woodrow Wilson in the White House to withstand the pressure of the war seekers on the one hand and the war partisans on the other. Wilson's course was the middle road, and he fearlessly took that road. We have all much to be thankful for for that as true Americans and with allegiance to one flag, and one flag only."

Thus spoke one German-American (pardon the use of the hyphen). But many more will speak silently but just as forcibly in the same vein on Nov. 7.

Wausau was a poor loser when Stevens Point was awarded the sixth State Normal school. Now it has lost out to Rhinelander in the contest for the next State Normal, and, if one may judge from the attitude of the Record-Herald, Wausau is still a "poor sport."

We quote from the editorial columns of last Thursday's issue of that paper:

"If the school were located on the basis of merit, all that was necessary was to consider the merits of Wausau. If some other policy prevailed—politics, personal influence, or pull of any kind—Wausau should have been able to do it better."

"Pull" had nothing to do with the decision to locate the next school at Rhinelander. It was that city's geographical position and its remoteness from any other Normal that guided the board of regents in its decision.

Take a map of the state, draw a line from Superior to Oshkosh and from Oshkosh to Milwaukee. The territory north of that boundary line constitutes at least one-third of the state, yet it has no Normal school. Mark the position of Wausau in this territory and note its proximity to Stevens Point. Then look at Rhinelander; notice the great field it will serve when its Normal is established and consider the rapid development that is going on in northern Wisconsin.

Lastly, after you have done this, a 1-year-old question, "Does Wausau or Rhinelander deserve the next State Normal school?" There can be but one answer, and that is, "The board of regents acted wisely and well."

A member of an old time school committee was once coaching his young teachers as to how they could make a success of school work. "All you have to do is to interest them," he said. "Yes," said the teachers, "but how would you go to work to interest them?" The committee man concluded that teaching school was a bigger human problem than he had supposed.

The worst old fashioned ungraded school turned out many excellent pupils. Any child that wants to learn will do so, given a decent text book.

And our superb modern schools turn out many dullards. They are equipped with the best text books and equipment. Physical conditions are carefully considered, so that the children shall always be aided by fresh air, good light and all conditions making toward mental alertness. Yet all these fail with great numbers of students. Some teachers have an originality of thought that keeps the youngsters constantly guessing. Unconsciously the ways of learning are made to seem novel and fascinating. But the majority of teachers have no such exceptional gifts.

In the old time school the children stood in a row and the one who missed a word in the spelling lesson lost his place. The head of the class was a highly prized distinction. Probably this old time spur of competition is the best reliance for the average teacher.

Some children can be stirred by appeal to the money motive. They can be made to see that the educated man earns better pay than the uneducated. It is a coarse motive, but legitimate to some extent. But there are little dreamers who live only in the present, and care nothing for such mature incitement. Probably you can arouse their interest only by a desire to compete with their schoolmates. The old way of placing the best pupils at the head of their class had a tangible appeal to the most sluggish mind.

With Stevens Point represented by at least two football teams each year, the Normal and the high school, the players often suffer from minor injuries and bruises. One of the city's professional men has proved himself a staunch football "fan" and has taken an active interest in the welfare of the players for a number of years past. Dr. E. H. Rogers is to be commended for the assistance he has given to injured athletes in many of the contests staged here. Unless professional business prevents him from attending, the doctor is rarely absent from gridiron contests staged in the city in which the local schools are participants. Dr. Rogers long ago won the friendship of members of both the Normal and high school football squads and coaches, and has proved that he is "with the boys" at all times.

SOUTH SIDE - RAILROAD

Personal and News Items of More or Less Importance to Readers of The Gazette.

Sup't. C. E. Urbaans of the Soo line spent the day at Minneapolis.

Mrs. Gilbert Beck went to Fond du Lac this morning for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kahr and Eugene Devine left yesterday on a trip to St. Louis.

Frank Chamberlain, whose serious illness was noted several weeks ago, is in a critical condition at present and grave fears are entertained that he cannot recover. His illness is due to Bright's disease.

One of the most productive fields of potatoes reported from the county this season is one of 5½ acres, owned by Fred Dudy near Junction City. Mr. Dudy harvested 942 bushels from the plot and, with better than dollar prices, will make handsome profit.

The new brick pavement on Division street, north from the Soo depot, is a decided improvement from the standpoint of appearance as well as convenience. The Soo line has also taken a hand and has had a large quantity of cinders dumped on the depot property along the Portage branch track.

L. D. Richards, chief clerk in the local Soo line office, is taking a vacation of ten days or two weeks and, accompanied by his wife and three children and his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Richards, has gone to Bass Lake spur, on the Superior line. A caboose fitted out in home-like style furnishes them quarters and they are enjoying fishing and hunting.

MORE NORMAL NOTES.

A meeting of the Arena society will be held Saturday evening at which time initiation of new members will take place.

A mass meeting will be held at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when the football squad will be given a rousing send off to River Falls. The team will give an exhibition signal practice on the Normal campus.

At a meeting of the home economics club Tuesday afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, Irma Janny, vice-president, Maude Mathe, secretary-treasurer, Helen Henderson, faculty advisor, Miss Schauberg.

A song fest is being planned by Miss Mabelle Shelton, head of the music department of the school, and Mr. Weber, director of Weber's band. The fest will be held in the Normal auditorium and will be a community affair. The date has not as yet been decided upon.

AGED RESIDENT DIES.

Mrs. Dorothea Crueger, Eighty-nine Years Old, Expires Suddenly Saturday Evening.

Mrs. Dorothea Sophia Crueger, one of the city's most aged residents, died at the home of her son, Fred Crueger, 218 Prairie street, at 8:30 o'clock last Saturday evening. Although Mrs. Crueger had been declining with old age, her death came suddenly and after she partook of her evening meal.

The deceased was 89 years of age last May 26 and was born in Germany, where she was married to August Crueger. Mr. and Mrs. Crueger came to this country in 1881 and directly to Stevens Point, which has ever since been the family home. Mr. Crueger died six years ago last spring, but there are four surviving children: Fred and Albert of this city, William of Brokaw and Mrs. Carl Tessman of Waukesha.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, from the residence and 2 o'clock from St. Paul's Lutheran church, Rev. E. H. Bertram officiating. Interment was in Forest cemetery. The pallbearers were Jacob Haag, Charles Rohrdanz, Jacob Mehne, Henry Schultz, Ernest Schmidt and Henry Vetter, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. William Crueger came Sunday night and Mrs. Tessman Tuesday morning to attend the obsequies. Ada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crueger, was here for a week preceding the death of her grandmother.

Mrs. Crueger was a woman devoted to her home circle and was a beloved friend of many of the city's older residents, who sincerely regret her taking away.

FINISH MONTH'S VISIT.

Mrs. William Gee and Miss Gertrude Cressp are expected home tonight from a visit of over a month in Milwaukee, Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mich. At Grand Rapids they visited Mrs. Gee's sister, Mrs. Joseph Witte, who was formerly Miss Emily Myers of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Witte were presented with another baby daughter last month, making four children in the family, two boys and two girls, including a pair of twins.

Old Friends and New

Winning permanent, lasting friends is the work of time, and this bank numbers among its clients hundreds of banks and business houses with whom it has had close relations for a great part of the years of its existence.

Our friends have helped to make this one of the largest and strongest banks in the west. We have helped in their making, too.

We welcome new friends and will attend to their wants with the same fidelity which has cemented our relations with the oldest ones.

Mrs. M. A. Dille arrived in the city Monday afternoon from Seattle, Wash., and will make an indefinite stay here, the guest of Mrs. W. F. Atwell. Mrs. Dille formerly lived in Stevens Point, but went to Seattle about four years ago.

Capt. Chas. D. Lillie of Chicago, western manager for the Seagraves Fire Apparatus Co. of Columbus, Ohio, makers of fire trucks, spent Monday in this city on a business trip and visiting John Reton, whom he knew when both were in Panama a few years ago. The visit was a very enjoyable one.

Although Dr. A. Klein, who has offices for the practice of dentistry in the Rothman block on Main street, had under consideration the devoting of Monday and Tuesday of each week to work at Coloma, he has definitely decided, on account of poor railway connections and the needs of his local practice, not to attempt the outside work.

L. A. Drown, son of a former pastor of the local Baptist church and at one time a student in the High school here, became editor of the Iola Herald on Monday, succeeding H. T. Raylin, who had charge temporarily after the departure of B. L. Bierce. Mr. Raylin has returned to the editorship of the Roswell Journal, which was run by his wife during his absence.

Fred Hollenbeck is visiting friends in the city.

John Bogaczek spent the week end at Amherst on business.

John Holbrook of Junction City was a business visitor to the city today.

Louis Rousky, proprietor of the Arcade billiard hall, has purchased a new Ford touring car, which he has placed at the disposal of the public for city and country trips.

Four little motherless children of R. H. Meddaugh of Pine Grove, one a baby, were given away Saturday. The children were taken by Supt. Banks of the Childrens' Home Finding Society of Wisconsin.

Judge B. B. Park and Court Reporter R. W. Morse were home from Grand Rapids Saturday and Sunday. They expect to be at Grand Rapids all of this week and next and will then take up the Waupaca county calendar at Waupaca.

The A. M. Copps, Geo. Hoppen and E. J. Nelson families, who had been enjoying camp life for a couple of weeks near Dancy, returned home Sunday. With the exception of last Thursday, the weather was almost ideal during their entire stay.

Local friends will be interested in knowing that a 9 1/2 pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. G. Caldwell at Minneapolis last Sunday morning. Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Alice Bowen, daughter of Conductor and Mrs. B. F. Bowen. There are now two boys in the Caldwell family.

Last Wednesday was a memorable day for the Boston family of Stevens Point. Miss Esther Boston became Mrs. Oscar J. Hoffman at noon on that day and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Willis J. Boston. And thus Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Boston had a son-in-law and a grandson come to them within a few hours.

Pearl Francis, the young woman who sustained a fractured ankle in a fall the middle of August and had since been receiving treatment at St. Michael's hospital, returned to her home in Greenwood last Friday. It was necessary to remove a piece of the bone from the ankle and as a result of the accident she will be permanently crippled.

W. J. Leary, the Amherst land man, accompanied Frank Murray of Bancroft to Heafford Junction the first of this week, where the latter bought an 80 acre farm which Mr. Leary owned.

The soil in that section is of a heavy clay loam and is therefore able to withstand considerable drought. While the potato yield in some parts of Portage county is light this season, big crops of the tubers are being harvested near Heafford Junction. It is fine looking stock and of uniform size.

M. O'Keefe of Custer drove in this morning and attended to business matters here during the day. He has finished harvesting his potatoes but from the results he attained, there is no likelihood of his swamping the produce market. While some portions of the field produced an average of 70 or 80 bushels per acre, other hills only a few feet distant were almost barren of merchantable stock. Most of the farmers in his neighborhood report light crops, while a few had an average yield.

Mrs. N. Kalaschinske and Mrs. L. D. Kitowski, accompanied by the former's sister, Mrs. E. Haas of St. Maries, Idaho, and their chauffeur, Leo Peck, returned last Friday from a week's visit with relatives in Milwaukee. They were also accompanied to Milwaukee by Mrs. Haas's son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haas of St. Maries, who remained there for a longer visit before returning to their home. Mrs. E. Haas left here for Rhinelander, Saturday, to visit a son, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Donahue and son, Ralph, who came up from Waukegan, Ill., last Friday, returned to that city yesterday morning. They were accompanied here by Carl Gibson, who also returned to the Illinois city with them, after seeing Stevens Point for the first time. Although Mr. Gibson is without hands, the result of an accident, he is able to earn his livelihood and is regularly employed by Mr. Donahue. He is planning on spending the winter here while attending the business college.

Miss Mabel L. Breitenstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Breitenstein of Stockton, who has been attending the Stevens Point business college for the past year, received her diploma from the complete course last week and leaves tomorrow for Marshfield, where she has accepted a very desirable position with the Soo line, under Harry Huber, agent. Miss Breitenstein is an exceptionally capable young lady and, with the thorough training she has received at the business college is certain to make a success of her new work.

Frank Drumb of Grand Rapids now holds the position of state editor of the Evening Wisconsin at Milwaukee.

Mrs. Sam Benish of Milwaukee has been visiting at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. Max Wirth and Mrs. Louis Goldberg, Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Salisbury of Fond du Lac arrived in the city yesterday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. McGaughlin.

Miss Theresa Moran, a member of the faculty of the Whitney public school in Chicago, visited at her mother's home here during the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Darling and daughter, Frances, of Wautoma, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Austin, Normal avenue.

Miss Marie Feely, who left here last May and had been spending the intervening months at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Lind at Marshfield, and at the summer resort of her uncle, James Feely near Fifield, has returned to the city and has resumed her position in the office of Dr. Cowan.

Hull residents have filed petition for a special election on Nov. 7 to take action on a $1,200 appropriation and Stockton plans to devote $800 toward the work.

The organization of two new school districts in the town of Buena Vista will take place on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, Oct. 21, instead of on the 23rd, as is stated in another part of this issue of The Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hogle, who had been spending a couple of weeks with local relatives, left Sunday night on their return to Kalamazoo, Mich.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Seidler, Water and Mill streets, last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Seidler now have two children, both boys.

Mrs. Ferdinand Foss and grandson, Harold Foss, of Coloma were in the city over Sunday, guests of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Getman, Normal ave.

Attorney J. R. Pfiffner delivered an address at Marshfield last Friday evening at a meeting arranged to complete the organization of a Wilson club.

BOOMING GOOD ROADS

Carson and Plover Vote Appropriations—Stockton and Hull Take Up Movement.

That the good roads program mapped out by local business men struck a popular chord is evidenced by the fact that the towns of Plover and Carson have already voted to hold up their end and that preliminary moves for special elections have been made by residents of the towns of Hull and Stockton.

The program represents an expenditure of $25,200, of which $2,400 will be appropriated voluntarily by Stevens Point people. The balance will come from county, state and nation.

Plover held its election Saturday and appropriated $1,500 by an overwhelming vote. Carson went just as strongly in favor of putting up $2,000, the election being held last week Tuesday.

Hull residents have filed petition for a special election on Nov. 7 to take action on a $1,200 appropriation and Stockton plans to devote $800 toward the work.

MEET ON SATURDAY.

The organization of two new school districts in the town of Buena Vista will take place on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, Oct. 21, instead of on the 23rd, as is stated in another part of this issue of The Gazette.

BURNED CHILD DIES.

Ceil, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reinhart, 917 Minnesota avenue, who was terribly scalded on Sept. 29 by falling into a tub of hot water, died shortly before noon today. The child was apparently recovering, but last evening was taken with spasms, which terminated in his death. There are five other children in the family.

BROWNE TO TOUR COUNTY.

Hon. E. E. Browne of Waupaca, candidate for re-election as congressman from this district on the Republican ticket, will make a tour of Portage county on Oct. 26, 27 and 28, accompanied by members of the county committee and candidates for county office. During the days he will deliver open air speeches and in the evenings will be in the principal villages for indoor meetings. The schedule follows:

Oct. 26—Bancroft, 9:30 a. m.; Blaine, 2:30 p. m.; Almond, 8 p. m. Oct. 27—Ed. Frost's farm, Linwood, 9:30 a. m.; Eau Pleine town hall, 2:30 p. m.; Roshiat, 8:00 p. m. Oct. 28—Nelsonville 2 p. m.; Amherst Junction, 4 p. m.; Amherst village, 8 p. m. He may also add another day to the tour and include Stevens Point in the itinerary.

RETURNS FROM WESTERN TRIP.

Mrs. Matt Ryan returned last Saturday from an extended western trip, on which she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. G. Scott of Fond du Lac. While the trip as a whole was a most delightful one, perhaps the time spent in Southern California was most greatly enjoyed because of the wonderful scenery and climate. Never to be forgotten sights were viewed, among them Adolphus Busch sunken gardens at Pasadena. A week was spent at Los Angeles and the exposition visited at San Francisco. At Pomona, Cal., the ladies had the pleasure of a visit with Mrs. John Lannon, a former Stevens Point resident, and at Long Beach they had the pleasure of meeting Ernest Miller, another former resident of this city. Stops were made at Portland, Ore., Seattle, Wash., and a week was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford at Mukilteo, Wash. The Ford family also formerly resided here.

While tourists have no trouble getting into Canada from the States, they find it more difficult getting out. However, after the unwinding of a lot of "red tape," residents of the States are permitted to cross the border, but natives of Canada are not given so much leeway. A Canadian lady whom the Stevens Point ladies met had made three different attempts to go to Rochester, Minn., to enter the Mayo Clinic hospital for an operation, but always failed to receive the required permission to cross the border. At Calgary, Vancouver, Winnipeg and other important places in Canada stops were made and one of the wonderful sights viewed in that country was a body of 7,000 soldiers in training.

His Vision of Beauty.

Is anything more beautiful, asks a New York World correspondent, than a bend of the river disappearing between green forest banks when the little, noiseless, rippling wake of a muskrat as it wades behind his nose in the mirror still water is the only sign that anything can possibly move in a thousand years?

Plenty of Security.

"Do you feel you are able to support my daughter in the style to which she has been accustomed?" asked the skeptical millionaire.

"Yes, indeed, sir," replied the favored suitor. "Since our engagement was announced almost any of the banks are willing to discount my notes." Richmond Times-Dispatch.

PHYSICAL TROUBLE.

Learn to look physical trouble in the face, cheerfully to order one's life for better living, without making too much fuss about it; to take care of one's health as a simple obligation to oneself, to one's family and to the community, but not to regard every ache and pain as a national calamity.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists. 75c.

ILLNESS PROVES FATAL.

John Kosmatka Passes Away at Home on Meadow Street Last Friday Morning.

John Kosmatka, aged 62, died at the family home on Meadow street at 3:55 o'clock last Friday morning, his death being caused by a growth in the throat. The deceased had been in failing health for about three months, but had been confined to his bed only five weeks. He was able to eat only little food for a number of days.

The deceased was born in German Poland on the 27th of December, 1854, and came to America in 1874, moving to South Bend, Ind., where he resided for three years. In 1877 he moved to this city, where he had made his home up to the time of his death. He was married to Miss Agnes Julga in Stevens Point thirty-six years ago. He is survived by his wife and six children as follows: Michael Kosmatka and Mrs. John Seidler of this city, John Kosmatka of Brokaw, Geo. Kosmatka, whose address is unknown, and Frank and Anna at home. One sister, Mrs. Magdalene Bykoski of South Bend, Ind., also survives.

Funeral services were held from St. Peter's church at 8 o'clock Monday morning, Rev. S. A. Elbert officiating. Interment followed in St. Peter's cemetery.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. John Kosmatka of Brokaw and Mrs. Magdalene Bykoski of South Bend, Ind.

When You Take Cold.

With the average man a cold is a serious matter and should not be trifled with, as some of the most dangerous diseases start with a common cold. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of your cold as quickly as possible. You are not experimenting when you use this remedy, as it has been in use for many years and has an established reputation. It contains no opium or other narcotic. Obtainable everywhere.

Here's a boy's composition on ships: "Ships are useful for going to foreign countries to teach savages how to dress. If there were no ships people would not go to the museum to see models. Sailors are very busy men and are always chewing tobacco to prevent seasickness. Poets get a living with writing about ships."

DOES BACK WORRY YOU?

Some Stevens Point People Have Learned How to Get Relief.

How many people suffer from an aching back? How few know the cause? If it hurts to stoop or lift If you often stumble, starting pain If you are weak, lame and tired suspect your kidneys. Watch for nature's signal. The first sign may be headache or dizziness.

Soreness, pain, or too frequent urination. Nervousness or a constant, deadened feeling.

Avert the errors kidney diseases. Treat the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills.

A remedy especially for sick kidneys.

Gratfully endorsed by residents of this locality.

Mrs. T. J. Warner, Randolph street, Rosedale, Wis., says: "I suffered from a constant pain in the small of my back, which I think came from hard work. Every time I bent over to do my washing or other housework, a pain like a knife was thrust into me, would shoot through my back. An advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills led me to get a box. They relieved me and I sent for two more boxes, which completely cured me. I think Doan's Kidney Pills are without an equal in curing kidney complaint."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Warner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HOW TO VOTE BY MAIL STORY WAS COLORED

Elector May Cast Ballot for Candidates Even Though Far From Home.

There is upon the statute books of Wisconsin a law relating to elections which is of prime importance to the railroad man, the traveling man and all others whose vocations may make it necessary to be absent from their election precinct upon election day. This law is known as the "Absent Voting" law, and provides a means whereby the man who is absent from his home precinct on election day may cast his ballot by mail and have it counted the same as though he went to the polls on election day.

Any qualified elector in Wisconsin who has been duly registered whose business compels him to be absent from his home precinct on election day or who expects to be absent on election day may vote by mail.

Any voter expecting to be absent from his home county on election day may make application to vote by mail any time within fifteen days prior to election and not less than three days prior to election. (At the general election of 1916, that would be any time between Monday October 23rd and Saturday, November 4th.)

Application to vote by mail must be made in person any time between these dates to the county clerk of the county or the clerk of the city, village or town as the case may be.

The official to whom application is made will furnish the voter with a blank from which he must fill out and return to the official not more than ten days prior nor less than three days prior to the election.

The official to whom application is made will then hand or mail to the voter the official election ballots, together with an official envelope upon the back of which is a printed affidavit form.

The voter will then appear before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths (if the voter in person makes application of the county, city, village or town clerk that official is usually an officer authorized to administer oaths, otherwise the voter may appear before any judge, justice of the peace or notary public).

The voter will then appear in the presence of any of the above officials to make affidavit, first exhibit the official ballots he has received unmarked; he will then in the presence of the official mark the ballots as he desires to vote them, but in such manner that the officer cannot see his vote. The voter will then fold his ballot so that the officer cannot see his vote and deposit it, together with any unused portion of the ballots, in the envelope bearing the affidavit blank and securely seal the envelope.

The voter will then subscribe to the affidavit and have it sworn to by the officer.

The voter may then either deliver the envelope containing his marked ballots in person to the office who issued the ballots or he may mail it to that officer, in which case it must be sent by registered mail, postage prepaid.

The marked ballots must be returned in person or mailed to the officer in the manner above, not later than three days prior to the election. In case of the November 1916 election not later than Saturday, November 14th.

SHOWS BIG SPUDS.

Five fine specimens of potatoes raised by W. Vaughn near Blaine, in the town of Belmont, are on display in the window of the First National bank. It is reported that the frosts did practically no damage in that vicinity and that the potato crop there was generally good.

COMPLETE WORK ON DAM.

The rebuilding of the dam of the Whiting-Plover Paper Co. has been completed by a crew of men under Peter Lewis of Kaukauna. Four new piers were constructed, greatly strengthening the work, and the dam itself practically rebuilt at a cost of about $20,000. As a result there is less waste of water and danger from ice and high water is reduced. Mr. Lewis has gone to Niagara, Wisconsin, to take charge of the rebuilding of the dam of the Kimberly-Clark Paper Co., which was badly damaged by high water and ice last spring.

SHARON BOY SHOT.

Felix Kluck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Kluck of Sharon, was shot in the collar bone during a raid on the Mexican border, says the Rosedale journal. His horse was shot from under him and in the fall the lad sustained a broken leg. He was taken to New Jersey, where an operation was performed, and later sent to Washington, D. C., to the government hospital for recovery. He has spent the last six weeks there and is now able to stand again. He has just received his discharge and will arrive home this week.

OUR CLUBBING OFFER.

Through a special arrangement we are able to offer a clubbing rate of $1.25 a year for The Gazette and the Milwaukee Daily Journal. The Gazette is the most widely read newspaper in Central Wisconsin, presents all the news in a clean, readable manner, with special attention to the rural districts; the Milwaukee Journal is a metropolitan newspaper in every sense of the word. The regular price of The Gazette is two dollars and of the Milwaukee Journal three dollars. Send us your order for both at $4.25, strictly in advance.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

Special arrangements have been made whereby we can send you The Gazette and Chicago's greatest paper, The Daily Tribune, both for one year for $4.25, providing you reside on a rural route. If you live in Stevens Point, the price for both papers is $4.95.

Stevens Point Girl Takes Hike in East—Cute Reporter Gives Story to Public.

Miss Vivian Johannes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Johannes, is one of a group of young women who have received a great deal of notoriety from a cross-country hike made in the east the last of August. Their pictures have been extensively published in some of the leading magazines, accompanied by a story that is interesting, even though not entirely truthful.

Miss Johannes, who is specializing in dramatic expression, attended Northwestern Conservatory and Stanley college at Minneapolis last year and early in the summer went to S. Woodstock, Conn., for a course in dancing under a celebrated woman artist. The pupils all lived out of doors, and when they "broke camp" the last of August they decided to walk to the teacher's home, Sharon, Mass., a distance of 50 miles. They made the trip in three days, without any great hardships. A reporter happened to learn of their journey and not only made a story of it, but managed to get possession of a picture that set it off in excellent shape, according to his own ideas. Here is the tale, taken from last week's issue of Leslie's, in which it was labeled "They Can Sympathize With Our Boys on the Border."

Heeding the back to nature call, five young women, all well known in the smart set of their respective home towns, barefooted and clad in light walking dresses, completed a 100-mile hike from South Woodstock, Conn., to Sharon, Mass., camping along the way and occasionally imitating Psyche's famous brook gazingfeat. They are, from left to right, Madeline Haff of Kansas City; Georgia Sprague, New York; Margaret Chamberlain, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.; Vivian Johannes, Stevens Point, Wis. (the article said Iowa); and Mary Gavin, Indianapolis.

The picture showed the five hikers resting on a bridge, with their bare feet hanging over the water.

Mrs. B. C. Johannes regards the affair as the public got it, in the light of a joke. "There is some truth to it," she said, "but a good deal that is not true. The reporter was pretty cute, all right, but the picture he got had nothing to do with the hike. The distance they walked was about 50 miles and they certainly did not walk barefooted."

Miss Johannes expects to remain in the east during the winter and will continue her studies in New York city.

The Table Mountain Beacon of Oct. 12, published at Karlsruhe, S. D., paid the following tribute to Crosby H. Grant, who died here Oct. 1.

Mr. Grant had been a resident of this community for the past six years, in which time he has made a large circle of close friends. Mr. Grant was an honest, hard working man, a good neighbor, a thoroughly good friend, an exceedingly good companion and a kind and loving father. The Beacon feels, as do his many friends, the loss that his passing away is to the community and joins in extending deepest sympathy to the bereaved sons and daughter in this their hour of sad bereavement.

Mr. Theisen, an efficiency expert from Superintendent Cary's office, gave an interesting and instructive talk.

On motion the Board adjourned. R. A. Cook, president. H. C. Welty, clerk.

THE BEST OF THE BARGAIN.

You get a bargain when you get The Youth's Companion for 1917 for $2.00—52 issues crowded from cover to cover with the reading you most enjoy. But you get the best of the bargain if you subscribe the minute you read this, for then you will get free every number of The Companion issued between the time you subscribe and New Year's. If you send $2.00 at once that means a lot of reading for which you won't have to pay a cent. And then the long, glorious 52 weeks of Companion reading to come after! Let us send you the Forecast for 1917, which tells all about what is in store for Companion readers in 1917.

By special arrangement new subscribers for The Youth's Companion can have also McCall's Magazine for 1917—both publications for $2.10.

THE COMMUNITY IDEA

Comment and Suggestions Having the Welfare and Progress of Our Local Community as Its Object.

What a lot of fuss and foolishness and befuddlement there is about mail order methods of doing business.

Those whose interests are in this line loudly proclaim the economy of this way of selling.

They talk much about how the elimination of the "middleman" saves money for the consumer.

And there has been such extensive and intensive advertising of this subject that it is not surprising many people have been led into a partial acceptance of these fallacious arguments.

Yet all the while these so-called "direct sellers," these concerns which talk so much of the needlessness of the "middleman," are themselves just as much "middlemen" as are the smallest country merchants.

For, while usually claiming their system to be "direct from producer to consumer," they are for the most part no more producers than the local dealers.

They buy and sell just as he does, and are subject to the same conditions, and operate under even greater handicaps.

They talk of their "wonderful values" and magnify their "great buying power," but omit all mention of the higher rents and excessive overhead costs.

Marshfield's estimated tax rate for the next year is $2.92 per $100, seven cents less than the preceding rate.

The Kenosha board of education voted to start a movement to eliminate the showing of "abnormal and sensational" moving pictures in Kenosha.

Halbert Swenson of Iola, defeated for the nomination for sheriff at the primaries, has announced himself as an independent candidate for that office in Waupaca county.

A frog farm has been started near Beloit by a Chicago commission firm for the purpose of raising a big enough supply of the four legged hopers to supply the country.

Mayor Grant V. Clark of Rhinelander has ordered the removal of all punch boards and other similar devices to stimulate sales of candy and other merchandise in that city.

William Albright, city assessor and one of the pioneer residents of Marshfield, died at the hospital there last Saturday evening. He leaves his widow and one son. He was 66 years of age.

The Michigan laws permit the marriage of blacks and whites, but county officials at Menominee refused a license to William Lee, colored, and Theresa Sekewitscha, white, both of Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

One hundred supporters of President Wilson, including Republicans as well as Democrats, organized a Wilson club at Grand Rapids last week. W. E. Wheeler was elected president and Matt Schlig secretary.

W. L. Smith, has been nominated by the Clark county Republican committee for assemblyman, to succeed C. M. Bradford, who recently died. Smith lost out at the primary to Bradford by a small majority.

Lillian Bauer, 17, a domestic employed at the restaurant of Fred Hertz, Jr., in Weyauwega, poured kerosene into a stove to start a fire. An explosion took place and she was so badly burned that she died several hours later.

Rhinelander New North:—We wonder if the men who are piling up sod in the middle of the road so high that it injures the automobiles as they go over, and call this road-building, realize that they are violating the law by so doing.

In a ruling furnished District Attorney Putnam of Waupaca county, Attorney General Owen holds that a school district board which refuses to display the flag over a schoolhouse is liable to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or a fine not exceeding $500.

At the 65th annual session of the Wisconsin Presbyterian synod at Fond du Lac last week, Rev. D. Jenkins Williams of Wausau was elected moderator and Rev. Chas. A. Adams of Merrill was re-elected stated clerk for his fifth term. Rev. Ernest C. Henke of Baraboo was elected permanent clerk.

One of the most aged inmates of the state prison at Waupun was paroled by Gov. Philipp Wednesday. Ernest Patzold, Racine, has been in prison since 1873, and is about 70. He tried to commit suicide after killing a man, and the wound resulted in permanent blindness. A relative near Milwaukee will care for the old man for the rest of his days.

Failure to record a mortgage for $10,000 given him by Walter H. Phillips until after the death of Mr. Phillips has cost F. X. Morrow the gift, according to a decision handed down by Judge Reid of Wausau. Testimony showed the mortgage was duly assigned in 1911, but the executor of the estate protested it successfully. Forty witnesses were called from Manawa, Morrow's home.

Burt Williams, Democratic candidate for governor, was introduced for his speech at Westby Wednesday by A. H. Dahl, Progressive Republican candidate for governor in 1914, who resides there. At Gay's Mills, Mr. Williams was introduced by Alvin Peterson, Progressive Republican candidate for the nomination for state treasurer at the recent primaries.

The largest sugar bush in Wisconsin is likely to disappear this winter. The H. N. Chandler tract of 206 acres of hard maple near Antigo is to be logged. It has been sold to J. J. Kingsbury. The sugar bush is equipped with a large evaporator and all modern appliances for making sugar, and has sent its product all over the country. It was a show place for visitors.

Governor Philipp late Wednesday afternoon signed the two bills passed on Tuesday at the special session of the legislature. Following the signing of the bills, which make it possible for soldiers on the border to vote at the November elections and amends the voting by mail statute, the legislature adjourned sine die. On Wednesday both houses adopted a resolution expressing sympathy and hoping for the restoration to good health of former State Senator Harry C. Martin, Darlington, who is critically ill at his home.

Michael Higgins, 61, former mayor of Racine for four terms, died at his home there last week.

The postal business of Ladysmith has passed the $10,000 mark and a movement for free mail delivery has been started.

The "unwritten law" was the defense of Frank Amendola, Italian of Kenosha, who pleaded guilty to charges of assault with intent to do great bodily harm. He alleged that Angelo Anibaldi had attempted to violate the virtue of his wife. Amendola was sentenced to one year in the state prison.

Helen L. Greip, Madison stenographer charged with murdering her 11-day old child, is now the wife of Walter Burch, who, she said, was the father of the infant. Miss Greip was convicted of fourth degree manslaughter, but her sentence of one year in prison was suspended. She was married soon after her release.

The sixty-third annual encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Wisconsin closed at New Richmond last week with the selection of Janesville as the 1917 convention city. New officers are: Grand patriarch, Geo. Garlach, Viola; high priest, W. C. Reilly, Osceola; senior warden, J. M. Ostrander, Mineral Point; scribe, James A. Fathers, Janesville; treasurer, John W. Salter, Unity; junior warden, C. W. Rhoades, Madison; representatives, Field Williams of Milwaukee and A. Karras of Hudson; trustee, J. G. Updegrafe, Ashland.

Edward Eckhard, who was sentenced to life imprisonment in April, 1878, on the charge of killing Charles Peterson, near Jefferson Junction, was last week pardoned by Governor Philipp. Eckhard and Peterson were diamond partners in Africa and one night, according to Eckhard, Peterson disappeared with the diamonds the two had obtained. Eckhard came back to America and became a tramp. He, with Hans Wagner, another tramp pitched camp near Jefferson Junction and that night a third man joined them and Eckhard recognized him as Peterson. In a quarrel that ensued, Peterson was shot. The other two fled but Wagner returned later to search Peterson's clothing for possible valuables and during the act, hit Peterson over the head, according to Eckhard. It was Eckhard's claim that this blow really killed Peterson.

MAD KING OF BAVARIA

Otto I Succumbs at Advanced Age, After Stormy Career in Castle.

King Otto of Bavaria, Europe's "mad king," died suddenly at the castle of Fuerstenried, where he has been confined for several years.

The "mad king" of Bavaria, about seventy years old, at the time of his death, started Europe by his eccentricities before he was declared incapable of ruling on Nov. 5, 1913, and was succeeded by his cousin, King Ludwig III. He had nominally succeeded his brother King Ludwig II, in 1886 when Ludwig committed suicide by throwing himself into a lake during a fit of insanity. His uncle, the regent, Luitpold, was, however, the real ruler of Bavaria.

During the Franco-Prussian war, Otto I showed symptoms of insanity when he called out a squad of cavalry to charge straight at a stone wall. The stone wall, he said, was a body of French infantry. Later he was summoned by the kaiser to headquarters, and it was reported letters were found in his possession offering to make peace with France. He was then put under a military escort.

Several years ago the "mad king" was imprisoned in the Fuerstenried castle. Though in the midst of rich furnishings, he is reported to have lived like a savage, refusing to have his hair or nails cut and avoiding water and soap. For days he would refuse food, imagining it to be poisoned. His attendants finally persuaded him to eat by pretending to hide food about the palace. The "mad king" then "discovered" the food and, believing it had been hidden by the servants to satisfy their own appetites, ate it with greatest relish. He was passionately fond of grand opera, summoned well known singers to his castle and often spent days listening to operas.

On April 27 of each year King Otto was examined by a government commission, charged with the duty of reporting on his sanity. A few years ago he became seriously ill from a carbuncle on his neck and was believed to be dying.

THE BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

(By a nationally known writer.)

Second on the list of great constructive laws was the revision of the tariff. This was not a free trade measure. It was simply a sincere effort based on thorough study of economic conditions, to reintroduce the principle of competition, to

For many years Republican and high protectionist manufacturer had had the ear of friendly committees at Washington. They rolled down to the capital in their Pullmans (charged up the prices to the necessities of life), and "testified." The committees inquired obscurely about what protection they thought they ought to have. The manufacturers named a good liberal amount as the height of the fence. It was always sufficient to shield them completely from the competition of Europe.

Now the Democratic party does not favor sharing American industries. It simply believes these industries should have the spur of a little outside competition. If on trial it proves that a tariff is wholly too low, so that goods can not be made here in competition with Europe, there are few Democrats that would oppose raising it to the competitive point.

But it does not believe that the manufacturer should be the sole arbiter of the prices of his commodities, that he should be able to exclude competition at will. It believes that in the great majority of cases our industries will be able to adjust themselves to the present tariff.

Our home factories not merely have a degree of protection that would be considered high in the protectionist countries of Europe. They also have the advantage of the high rates for freighting goods from interior points in Europe and across the water.

On the tariff question the Republican party is hopelessly lame. It has nothing to offer but a return to a policy which the American people rejected by a most overwhelming vote. It proposes to have tariffs made by the producers, when the interest of both producer and consumer should be given equal consideration.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

Rhinelander New North, Oct. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Johnston returned from Stevens Point Monday where they spent a few days with Mrs. Johnston's sister, Mrs. Moran, who is recovering from a recent illness. Mr. Johnston says that Stevens Point is forging ahead at a merry clip and the progress which the city has made within the last few years along commercial and industrial lines, combined with public improvements is actually surprising. "Nothing wrong with Stevens Point," declares Mr. Johnston, "and the people there are 18 karat boosters." Mr. and Mrs. Johnston had the pleasure of meeting many old time friends. They also witnessed some good horse racing on the Stevens Point track Sunday afternoon.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden.

Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having frequent colds at the time it was contracted.

A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided.

OPPORTUNITY IS HERE

Lieut. W. E. Rosebush, of Appleton,
Says City is Ready For Militia Company.

That Stevens Point could secure a place in the Wisconsin National Guard if an organized movement were begun by local people, is the opinion of Lieut. W. E. Rosebush of Co. G., 2nd Infantry, Appleton, who was here last Thursday evening and Friday morning.

Although Lieut. Rosebush had been detailed to recruiting service, this was of secondary importance in his visit to Stevens Point. He came primarily to look over the ground to determine whether or not there is sufficient interest here to warrant attention when the proposed new National Guard companies are established. "There is only one recommendation I can make," he said. "Stevens Point is ripe for a company and it is up to your people to get busy. Your men need have no fear of being shipped to the Texas border should a company be formed. Janesville, Racine and Green Bay organized only last spring and had their first encampment at Camp Douglas in August. It is unreasonable to suppose that a green company would be called out."

In letter to The Gazette since his visit here, Lieut. Rosebush said: "The present minimum strength of our infantry company in time of peace is 81 men and 3 officers. When we speak of officers in this case we mean those holding a commission from either the governor of the state or the President of the United States. The non-commissioned officers, such as corporals and sergeants, are technically classed as 'enlisted men.'"

Under the Chamberlain bill which became effective July 1st, men and officers of the National Guard are compensated for their time and work. This never had been done before except for the time spent at the State Encampment, when the officers received army pay, the private $2.00 a day and the non-commissioned officers a proportionately higher amount. Now, however, by attending all the weekly drills—1½ hours one night a week—a private is entitled to $45.00 a year, a corporal $60.00 and a sergeant $90.00. The captain receives $500.00, the first lieutenant $300.00 and the 2nd lieutenant $200.00. The officers, however, have to buy their own outfits.

Naturally the government sets certain standards of proficiency necessary to obtain this money and the men and officers earn every cent of their allowance. But it is not exactly like it used to be when all we got was the satisfaction of doing our work well or that of rivaling other companies in inspection markings, with possibly the winning of one or more of the various prize cups and insignia or trophies which are always big bones of contention. Some of us went in for the shooting game, some on account of basket ball and for various other reasons, but none of us because we were paid.

The U. S. Government furnishes the complete uniform, from hat to shoes, all the equipment and accoutrements, gun, bayonet, haversack, blankets, mess (or food) kit etc., for each man; all field equipments, the entire kitchen—stove, pots, pans, knives, axes, shovels and a whole bedlam of utensils, tools and miscellany too numerous and tiresome to mention here but all necessary, each filling its own proper purpose, which must be learned. Our military rifle, technically called the "United States Magazine Rifle model of 1903," is the best military arm in the world in most respects. This gun shoots a .30 calibre jacketed spitzer bullet at a velocity of 2,700 feet per second. It is very accurate and on that account a constant joy for the gun lover to shoot.

This brings us to the question of the range. Mention that there is an ideal location near Stevens Point settles the work of finding one. While the "regular old rifle cranks" shoot up to 1,000 yards (and in fact have to if they are trying for the State team for the national matches), a range of 600 yards in length is usually ample. The disappearing targets are furnished by the Government and likewise rental for the range. Many companies own their own ranges, however, build a range house (virtually a club house, dining hall etc., anything the company sees fit) and make these places a rendezvous for their outdoor sports of all kinds. While some of the men are using the regular range targets, others may be playing baseball, or trap shooting or fancy shooting at moving objects with the .22 calibre rifle. Many of the men bring their lunch, others prefer to bring the raw ingredients and enjoy camp cooking of their own, while other days the company cook gets dinner for the whole party. In the winter the shooting is carried on with the regular service rifle adapted for the ".22 short" in the indoor gallery in the armory. The Government furnishes both the .30 and .22 calibre ammunition, simply requiring that it shall not be wasted but used to attain a certain grade of proficiency in the company work.

Your skating rink in Stevens Point could be used as a temporary armory, I am told. Rental for such halls for armory purposes is also supplied by the government, depending on the size of the organization and other circumstances. Please understand that the government will furnish the money and property for all this as above after the company is organized and ready to do business. In other words a town must itself furnish the necessary ambition and enthusiasm to get started, show its purpose to be thoroughly in earnest and then the government will give its help, which of course is as it should be and as we American citizens want it to be.

Now I have only given a slight idea of the game, skipped much of its most interesting parts, such as camp life, and put little emphasis perhaps on many things which interest or raise the curiosity of the layman most, but if anyone at any time has any question to ask on any particular part or point of the military game, I will be only too glad to respond promptly. If

I can't answer it, I'll see that someone else does, who can.

Furthermore, I have said nothing about the great physical benefits to be derived from the training, the good outlet given to the natural active energy of young men, which sometimes goes wrong for the lack of something like this, of the good a military company can do in a community when rightly handled and directed as a centralizer of public interest, and most specifically as a breeder of good, honest, substantial American patriotism.

A good company, affiliated with the G. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps and the Spanish War Veterans, makes an entity of glory in the small boy's mind and a lasting love for the American flag which all the anarchy and social atheism of mature years can never destroy.

It seems to me Stevens Point has plenty of "pep," plenty of enthusiasm, and plenty of patriotism for an undertaking of this kind. And it will get from its company exactly what it puts in—Yes, more.

The Adjutant General, Madison, Wis., can give you complete details as to organization procedure and also will probably be glad to furnish further general information upon request.

MERRY MADE PRESIDENT.

J. W. Merry, one of Stevens Point's enthusiastic Sunday school workers and who had charge of the boys' camp at Lake Emily last August, was elected president of the Portage County Sunday School association by the executive board at their meeting last Thursday morning at St. Paul's M. E. church. Mr. Merry was also authorized to name a vice president. The annual meeting of the association will be held some time in November, the date and place to be decided later.

Normal Football Team Wins Game From Upstarters Saturday—Score 21 to 0.

With six regular players out of the game, the local Normal football team trounced the strong Chippewa Falls High school eleven at the fair grounds last Saturday, the final score being 21 to 0. At no time during the contest were the visitors within striking distance of the teachers' goal, although they put up a hard fight and proved themselves worthy opponents until the final whistle was blown.

The first scoring was done after eight minutes of play in the first quarter, Reynolds placing a drop between the goal posts from the thirty yard line, tallying three points. Frequent penalties for holding prevented the locals from further scoring in the first half.

Chippewa played their best game at the opening of the third quarter advancing the ball to the Normal's twenty-five yard line, resorting largely to forward passes for their gains. The first touchdown was registered following a neat pass of thirty-five yards, Reynolds to Burns, bringing the pigskin to the twenty yard line from where Eagleburger carried it over on a wide run around right end. Goal was missed.

Reynolds scored a touchdown in the final period, crossing the Chippewa goal line on a line buck after the ball had been advanced to the two yard line. The locals again scored when Eagleburger caught a punt and ran fifty-five yards through the entire high school team, being given good interference by his teammates. Goal was again missed.

As the final whistle for time was blown the Normal had again advanced the ball to striking distance of their opponents' goal. A play was started on the upstarters' two yard line and the ball carried over the line by Eagleburger. The referee, however, ruled that the play was begun just before time was called.

Chippewa Falls failed to make substantial gains through the Normal line, playing the open game, but were held for downs repeatedly in spite of their passing. Normal was prevented from rolling up a bigger score by penalties, losing 125 yards during the game. The teachers succeeded in passes in three attempts out of four.

Next Saturday Corneal's squad travels to River Falls for the first conference game of the season, against the Normal school team of that place. The local squad will be greatly strengthened by the return of all of the regular men. As Saturday's contest will have a bearing on the championship of the northern division, football fans will await with keen interest the outcome. Although the River Falls team only succeeded in defeating the Chippewa Highs by a 2 to 0 score early in the season, they are reported to have been greatly strengthened during the last two weeks. Last Saturday they played Stout Institute and were victorious by a 20 to 7 score.

WILL GET RETURNS.

Special telegraph wires will carry the returns of the national and state election to the Elks' club rooms on the evening of Nov. 7, the same as four years ago. Returns from the county will also be received. Elks and their friends are invited to spend the evening at the club.

TO ORGANIZE DISTRICTS.

School districts Nos. 10 and 11 of the town of Buena Vista will be formally organized next Monday evening, Oct. 23, when officers will be elected and future plays made.

No. 10 consists of old districts Nos. 1, 3, 4 and a part of 2, and No. 11 is composed of the remainder of what was known as consolidated district No. 1, recently divided by the county committee on common schools. It is probable that steps toward the establishment of a graded school in No. 10 will be taken in the near future.
